NEW RATE: $2.148 FOR EACH $100 VALUATION

7.8¢ COUNTY TAX HIKE SEEN

State Figures Kill Hope For Averting Rate Increase

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A boost of 7.8 cents in the county tax rate, to $2.148 per $100 of assessed valuation, will be needed to meet the record-breaking 1961-62 budget, the County Board of Supervisors was told Tuesday.

But the situation could be worse. Now the county has machinery to calculate taxes in fractions of a cent. Before, the tax increase would have had to be a full 8 cents.

Only three Supervisors were present Tuesday when the bad news broke: De Graff Austin, acting chairman; Robert C. Dent and Frank A. Gibson.

Austin called it "a remarkable thing" that the increase was so small in view of added county expenses. He said the county policy of paying for part of its capital projects out of current revenue would make it easier for future taxpayers.

Dent said that county residents would have to recognize that the added services being asked require more money. But he added that he had hoped until the last moment that a tax increase could be avoided.

Gibson's complaint was that people did not know what the county was doing and how hard Supervisors were working to provide good government.

The news a tax boost would be needed came as a result of preliminary figures from Sacramento on the assessed valuation on public utility facilities. These are $205,908,730, compared with $180,745,130 a year ago. The increase is the largest in any of the three categories affected by the tax rate: Local secured rolls, local unsecured rolls and State-assessed properties.

The total budget, percentage-wise, shows a greater increase than the tax rate. The county in the current year is to spend $86,483,939, compared with $78,299,877, a gain of $8,184,062 this year over 1960-61.

Supervisors took no action to set a 1961-62 rate. The report on what will be needed was made to the Board "for information only" by Fred A. Morey, assistant chief administrative officer.

School Board Finds County Too Fussy

A recent request for approval of a classroom addition at Mt. Miguel High School was met, by conditional approval from the County Planning Commission.

The Commission asked for additional right of way on Blossom Lane. They want to widen it from 60 to 84 feet because of the road's importance as a primary carrier of traffic.

The school board objected to this request by the commission. The board said that it considered the request excessive, injurious to existing improvements on the high school site, and unreasonable because the high school had already dedicated 20 feet to the right-of-way and had installed curbs and improvements at the school district's expense.

The school board asked for immediate, unconditional approval of their plans for a classroom addition.

RETIRE IN LUXURY

Planners Set Hearing For $3 Million Lodge In L.G.

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A public hearing on a special use permit for a $3,000,000, 230-bed retirement home on seven acres in Lemon Grove is slated for Friday morning before the County Planning Commission.

The luxury development for "healthy and active" retired persons is to provide recreation facilities, including bowling and a swimming pool, a special nutrition program, physical therapy supervision and transportation for shopping.

Rates at the establishment are to start at $300 per month for single room and $500 per month for two in a room, but annual contracts will reportedly result in a saving. The rates include food and services.

Bus Service To Area Thwarted By Competition And PUC, Owner Avers

Freddie L. Allen, a bus line operator at 10106 Del Rio rd., Spring Valley, this week charged the State Public Utilities Commission with "unfairness" in not letting his firm present public witnesses at a recent PUC hearing on extending routes.

Allen, who operates the Economy bus lines between Casa de Oro and San Diego via Lemon Grove told a reporter that his several attempts to get franchises for extending routes of the Freddie Allen Bus Lines have been frustrated by efforts of the PUC and the S.D. Transit System.

Allen says he applied for a cross-town route connecting El Cajon, Fletcher Hills, Grossmont hospital, La Mesa, Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, Highland Park, Sunnyside, Bonita, Chula Vista, Castle Park, Otay, Port of Entry, San Ysidro and the Navy air station at Brown field.

The S.D. Transit System applied for part of the same route after the Allen application was filed, Allen avers. The S.D. firm was granted permission to cover part of the route the same day Allen was refused his request.

SAME PROBLEM

Allen says that the same problem exists now as it did before with riders having to go downtown from the East county in order to get the south bay area.

Allen told the reporter that the PUC had denied his witnesses the privilege of testifying at the hearing.

James Haugh, vice president and general manager of the S.D. Transit System said that his firm had applied for an extension of routes normal to its service area.

He said that he had attended all of the hearings relating to the requests and thought both groups had been thoroughly heard.

An adjourned hearing, Haugh said, was for the purpose of permitting Allen to produce additional financial information requested by the Commission. At that time testimony of additional public witnesses was not permitted under a prior ruling of the Examiner, Haugh pointed out.

S.D. CALLS FOR NEW BIDS ON METRO SEWER

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A new ease on life has been given the San Diego Metropolitan Sewer System, and representatives of agencies who have contracted with the system retracted enthusiastically Thursday afternoon to San Diego City Council plans to go ahead with building the project.

The system, for which a cost of close to $49,000,000 developed two weeks ago compared with estimates of less than $42,000,000, is being re-designed, and the San Diego Council Thursday engaged Engineering Services, Inc., to "look over the shoulder" of Holmes and Narver-Montgomery of Los Angeles. The latter firm prepared the original plans and was responsible for the errors in estimating that have caused the present confusion.

Meanwhile, the City of S.D. called for new bids on the modified outfall line which may save as much as $2 million in overall costs. Bid opening date has been set for August 18, three days after the deadline cancellation date for $42.5 million city sewer bonds. Deadline extension of three days has been granted, however.

Alan Firestone, city counsel, said that the city would suffer substantial loss if the bonds, originally scheduled for August 15, were not accepted. Estimates of the loss runs as high as $3.5 million.

If the outfall bids are too high the whole project goes down the drain and the financial loss will have to be taken, Firestone pointed out.

In a series of steps Thursday, the San Diego City Council declared a "state of emergency" as existing, because of the threat to health and safety resulting from the over-loading of area sewer systems. The declaration gives the Council the power to make change orders in the bids received on the system and to negotiate for new prices on the changes in design.

Cities and the sanitation district were told that their contracts with the participating agencies provide for a 10 per cent shift in their share of the charges for participation, but that the proposed changes in plan designs will only boost their contributions by 4.8 per cent.

Planners Plan Rules For New Rest Homes

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—The first "special" session of the commission within the memory of most persons at Civic Center, and no notice that it was to be held was given to the press or to radio and television. Proposed projects at Solana Beach, Pine Valley and Poway were discussed.

Commissioners discussed the "senior citizen" projects for almost three hours. The only conclusion they seemed to agree upon was that any plan for building a residence on a plot of 4,000 square feet as proposal for a Poway project instead of the current minimum of 6,000 square feet, should be accomplished by issuing special use permits and not changing the zoning law to allow lots of 4,000 square feet.

Under the plan as discussed, a developer of a residential area for retired persons would have to provide "open space," for recreational and other uses, of sufficient area so that the overall relationship between buildings and land would be kept as at present.

More-Than-Normal Number Of Crime Incidents Plague Sheriff's Deputies Here

A score or more of crimes of varied intensity plagued the area during the last reporting period.

An upsurge of juvenile crimes and crimes against juveniles was noted.

Some observers believe the extreme hot weather recently experienced might have activated the wrong-doing glands of some of the local citizens to create this larger-than-normal log of citizens-law enforcers incidents.

Wagon Drill Missing

A wagon drill worth $3,500 disappeared from the storage yard of Paul Q. Harvey who operates a machine, tool, and welding shop at 7160 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

He told deputy sheriff's men last week that the drill belonging to J. W. Guyer of Lakeside was taken between March 1960 and May 1961.

Guyer had left the drill in Harvey's custody early last year but it wasn't missed until Guyer called for it recently.

Wine Stealer Apprehended

The sheriff's department released a 13-year-old boy to the custody of his father after the boy stole a pint of wine from Noble's Market, 1112 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley.

He was apprehended by John W. Barnes, co-owner of the market.

Noisy Tool Thief

The driver of a car with a noisy muffler pulled alongside a pickup truck belonging to Lewis Edward Raab, 3607 S. Cordoba st., S.V. and lifted from the truck a box of carpenter's tools and sped away. Raab told sheriff's deputies.

Bring Barrow Back

A $28 aluminum wheelbarrow, complete with pneumatic tire that Ray Glenn Watkins of 9526 Monte Mar st., Spring Valley, left parked in his yard August 2, is gone, he reported to police.

Hub-Snitcher Takes Four

A hub-cap snitcher took all four from the 1960 Ford belonging to Carroll Don Berry who lives at 1874 Massachusetts ave., Lemon Grove.

Berry, a super-market assistant manager and his wife were in the L.G. Bowlero August 1 when the $20 theft occurred.

'COIN CHECKER' CHECKED

A suspect registering as Darwin K. Myers, 35, of San Diego, told sheriff's deputies that he was part owner of three or four automatic laundries including Del's Easy Wash at 7775 Broadway and that he goes around checking the coin boxes.

His statement sounded odd to Antonio Motta, the firm's sole owner and several sheriff's deputies who were investigating rifling of coin boxes at Del's.

Dies In Inn Fight

Frank Fitzgerald, 60, of 3777 Riviera dr., L.G. died of a heart attack following a restroom altercation at the Hilltop Inn, Suncrest.

His antagonist was Orville Randall Bishop, also 60, who claims Fitzgerald attacked him. Fitzgerald is owner of the Hilltop Inn.

Bishop runs a grocery and hardware store, nearby.

Ranch Damage $125

School papers found in the shed of the ranch of Tom Kida in Casa de Oro where $125 damage was done by vandals recently, led to three juvenile suspects, one of which is 11 years old.

Damage included destruction of five boxes of waxed nursery caps, fertilizer and oil.

The Kida ranch is behind the Highland elementary school on South Barcelona.

Three electric saws valued at $375 were stolen last week from a tool box attached to the truck belonging to John Tyndle Love.

The truck was parked in front of Love's home at 1327 Walbollen, Spring Valley.

Snaps, Cracks, Pow! A bent electric conduit carries a snap and a wallop Ray Clement Buttles learned last week.

He tried to bend the conduit by standing on one end and tugging at the other while working on a construction job at the Avondale school on Stansbury street in Spring Valley.

The end of the conduit under his foot slipped and clobbered him across the head.

Spring Valley ambulance men responded quickly. Doctors at Grossmont needed 13 stitches to sew up Buttles.

Moral Charge Made

A prominent San Diegoan registered as Lloyd Michael Finnerty, 39, of 4645 Nona dr., was taken into custody by a sheriff's unit at 3:55 a.m. July 28 on a charge of lewd and lascivious conduct.

Deputies Arthur Haurer and Edward Hughes found Finnerty parked in front of 1924 Main st., Lemon Grove, naked from the waist down. With Finnerty was a sailor registered as Benjamin F. Perkins.

Finnerty attempting to flee was clocked at 60 MPH until he was stopped in front of 7238 San Miguel.

Perkins said that he had been picked up by Finnerty who offered to give him a ride to the Naval Base. Finnerty was booked at county jail on

Bathtub Sitter Proves To Be 14-Year-Old Boy

The mysterious prowler found seated in the dry bathtub at 3 a.m. in the residence of Mrs. Deloris Louis Brum, 4626 Terry ln., Vista La Mesa, has been identified.

He is a 14-year-old youth who lives in Vista La Mesa.

Mrs. Brum found him seated barefoot, but with Bermuda shorts and a tee shirt on, in her bathtub when she awoke to investigate noises in her house. When she screamed, the youth hid her across the head, lacerating her scalp.

The intruder was identified by Mrs. Brum after considerable detective work by sheriff's deputies Oscar Morlett and Robert Morton.

The boy, after confessing to the prowling, said he had originally wanted only to frighten Mrs. Brum by banging on her door. Instead, he decided to prowl and crouched in the bathtub when Mrs. Brum came in and held a flashlight on him. He said he panicked and struck her while trying to get away. He ran home, changed to his pajamas and jumped into bed.

He said the caper was "a spur of the moment" impulse. The boy's father requested that the boy be remanded to the County Probation Department for treatment. Mrs. Brum agreed not to press charges if the boy was subjected to rehabilitation.

Mrs. Brum has three children.

Too Many Taxes

The President, in his television speech to the nation last month, suggested that Americans would accept more taxes as a cost of world security without grumbling.

That, we thought, was a rational proposition if he could get Congress to lop off the fat-cat and wasteful expenditures on which our taxes are now used.

Whether the so-called "economy" can stand more taxes is problematical only among those who operate large businesses. . . say firms doing more than $1,000,000 a year gross business.

It is no longer a question of ability to pay among the small business firms. They simply can't stand the impact of more taxes without relief via higher income. Small businesses, those with payrolls to meet, for the most part have been having a rough tax time of it for the past year. Many are now operating on a deferred tax payment arrangement simply because there wasn't enough left for taxes after the payroll was met.

What are these taxes?

A California tax calendar supplied for the newspaper industry shows due-dates on taxes that newspapers face between August 15 and August 31. Many other business firms pay these taxes and more! But newspapers sell nothing involving excise, drug, export, import, fuel and other offbeat taxes. But here is what is due the last half of this month:

August 15. Federal O.S.S.I. and income tax withholding (joint return). Employers who withheld more than $100.00 during July from salary or wages are to pay amounts withheld plus employer's portion of O.A.S.I. to authorized depository. (Form 450 - federal depository receipt).

August 15. Federal income tax - corporations: Fiscal year ended May 31, 1961; annual return (1120) and 50 per cent installment to Director of Internal Revenue. Second 50 per cent installment - fiscal year ended February 28, 1961.

August 15. First installment of estimated tax declaration due for corporations with fiscal year ending November 30, 1961 and with an estimated income tax in excess of $100,000. Second installment of estimated tax due - fiscal year ending August 31, 1961.

Federal income tax - individuals: Fourth quarterly installment and last day to file amended declaration of estimated individual income tax for taxpayers with fiscal year ended July 31, 1961. Individuals (other than farmers) may file final returns (1040) by August 31 in lieu of amended estimate.

Third quarterly installment - fiscal year ending November 30, 1961

Second quarterly installment - fiscal year ending February 28, 1962.

First quarterly installment - fiscal year ending April 30, 1962.

Annual return on Form 1040 and adjustment of estimated tax to actual for fiscal year ended April 30, 1961.

Annual declaration of estimated income tax on Form 1040-ES for fiscal year ending April 30, 1962.

August 15. State personal income tax: Second one-third installment of 1960 tax due Franchise Tax Commissioner.

Do you think Spring Valley should incorporate?

Mrs. Paul Mundell, housewife, 7010 Springfield, Lemon Grove:

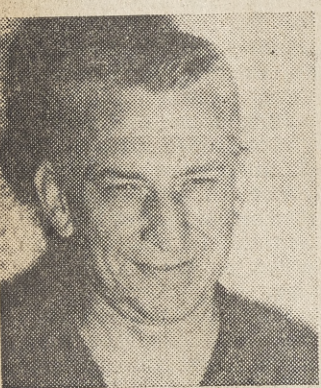

MRS. PAUL MUNDELL

"I think so. Spring Valley is big enough for incorporation. The taxes might get a little higher but the improvements, such as better streets and improved law and fire coverage, would make the increase well worth it.

"If Spring Valley doesn't incorporate now, it might not get such a good opportunity again. I would like to see Lemon Grove incorporate too. The ones against incorporation raise the argument of higher taxes. But the hike in taxes is no argument when one figures what these taxes would do."

Joseph G. Vitas, U.S. Treasury Department employee, 8624 Bigford, Spring Valley:

JOSEPH G. VITAS

"Spring Valley isn't ready for incorporation. We need growth and more explicit statistics. I would have to know more about the recent survey here by State College. I believe the professor's phrase, 'not infeasible,' in referring to incorporation, is too broad, too indefinite.

"My wife and I don't like the idea of an outsider—Dr. Hayles Trent—pushing for incorporation when he doesn't even live here. We don't say that we will always be against incorporation, however. But I think Spring Valley people—at least the ones in our neighborhood—are too apathetic to bring about incorporation or any other community project."

Mrs. James Taylor, housewife, 7643 Skyline, Lemon Grove:

MRS. JAMES TAYLOR

"Any community should try to become a city to better the community. I feel that incorporation attracts more of what any community needs—churches, better schools and shopping centers.

"I don't believe taxes would be enough higher to prevent incorporation. However, I think that law enforcement is adequate already and it isn't necessary that Spring Valley incorporate immediately. The elected head of Spring Valley, whether he be called a mayor or city manager, shouldn't get as much pay as the head of a large city like San Diego."

Dry Weather May Stop Local 'Control Burning'

People of the Lemon Grove area have again been cautioned about their control burning. Capt. Harry Alexander of the Lemon Grove fire department said that this can't be stressed too much because we're in the driest season in 11 years.

He said that it's a good thing for people to be clearing away by control burning the areas that could be fire hazards. But if the weather gets any drier, he pointed out, the fire department may find it necessary to prevent any private burning whatsoever.

But in view of the season, business has been slow for the fire department. On the afternoon of August 1 firemen were called to the residence of C. E. Edenfield of 2285 El Prado in Lemon Grove. This fire burned a quarter of an acre before being put out.

Edenfield said he didn't know what caused the fire. No children had been seen in the area.

LEGAL FIRE

On Aug. 6 at 8:20 p.m. firemen were called to the home of J. F. Southwick at 8050 Palm in Lemon Grove. Nearby residents had seen smoke from the fire and called the fire department. But it was reported that Mrs. Southwick had the fire under control and was making a legal control burn.

On Aug. 6 at 5:31 p.m. the fire department's rescue unit was called to 1505 Skyline where a San Diego man had collapsed on the street while walking through the area.

The victim, Louis Horvath of 1215 Braddock st., San Diego, required oxygen and after first aid by firemen he was taken to the Naval hospital for further treatment.

The fire department recently installed a new rotary telephone unit which makes for greater efficiency in handling calls. The department has a new business number — HO 6-0564—but the emergency number, HO 6-1459, will continue in use.

Parade Entries Revealed

Spring Valley parade chairman Bill Zabel said that to date 14 equestrian groups, two marching units, one drill team, three floats, one decorated car and three color guards have been entered in the parade planned for later this year.

A special meeting by the committee of the Spring Valley parade was held Monday night for the purpose of selecting trophies and other important business. The theme of this year's parade will be "New Horizons" and to that end the selection of the trophies will be decided.

A grand marshal has not been selected. Suggestions on the matter were discussed and Zabel said he hopes to be able to divulge the name of the marshal in the near future.

More help from local people are needed in order to make this year's parade a success. Needed are persons to donate public address systems; persons to help with constructing a reviewing stand, and many other jobs.

The question was brought up as to what age group will be allowed to march in the parade. Zabel said children in fourth grade and above will be allowed.

School District Requires 27-Cent Raise In Taxes

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District board of trustees, which held a special board meeting Monday night, set the override tax rate of the district at $1.97 per $100 assessed valuation. This is an increase of 27 cents over the maximum rate of the past five years.

The new rate will have to be approved by the taxpayers at an election scheduled for October 10.

Also approved by the board was the placing on the ballot of $2,980,000 in bonds and $3,950,000 in state aid. These two items are being submitted in order to keep the building program of the district active, according to Dr. Ted Dixon, associate superintendent of the LM-SV School District. Dixon pointed out that if the tax rate fails to pass, the rate will drop back to the original 90 cents which was being paid in the 1940's.

Dr. Dixon said that this district (for the next five years) will depend on three major items: 1. Federal impact funds; 2. state aid; and 3. an increase in the commercial side of assessed valuation, such as shopping centers.

OVERLOADED CLASSES

"The school administration feels that if the three items mentioned do not produce, that the $1.97 will last only three years and we may get back to the program of overloaded classes," Dixon pointed out. He said it is the intent of the district to be comparable to other school districts.

The primary growth of the District, Dr. Dixon pointed out, is expected in Spring Valley. Plans are under way to open an elementary school in La Presa in 1962, the school to be located on Kempton st. Also a study will soon start for a new junior high school on Leland st. in South Spring Valley area.

It has been estimated that there is a need for one new elementary school per year in the LM-SV School District, Dixon said. This is plus additions to existing schools and junior high school facilities, he concluded.

KJARTON MAGNUSSON

He and his sister, Linda, a 16-year-old June graduate of Mt. Miguel high school, plan to attend Brigham Young University at Provo, U., this fall. He intends to major in languages, she in business administration.

Young Magnusson's labor for the church in Norway was lauded by the chief missionary there. Magnusson learned Norwegian so quickly that he preached religion to the people there. He speaks and writes the language fluently.

His ultimate goal is to enter the U.S. diplomatic service as an interpreter. If he gets drafted in the meantime, he wants to enter the language corps in the Army.

"MY DOCTOR..."

This possessive phrase is familiar to all.

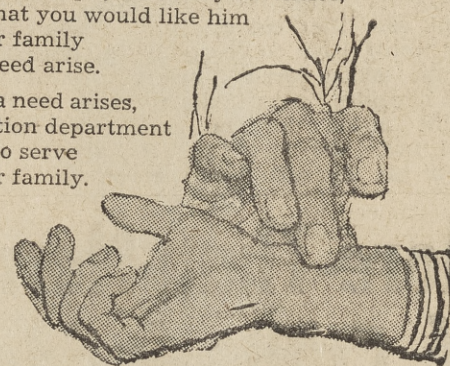

It represents the profound confidence American people have in physicians.

But do you really have a family physician?

Even though you may have been fortunate, not requiring medical care, it is stitch-in-time wisdom to establish a "family doctor" relationship.

Simply contact the physician of your choice, requesting that you would like him to serve your family should the need arise.

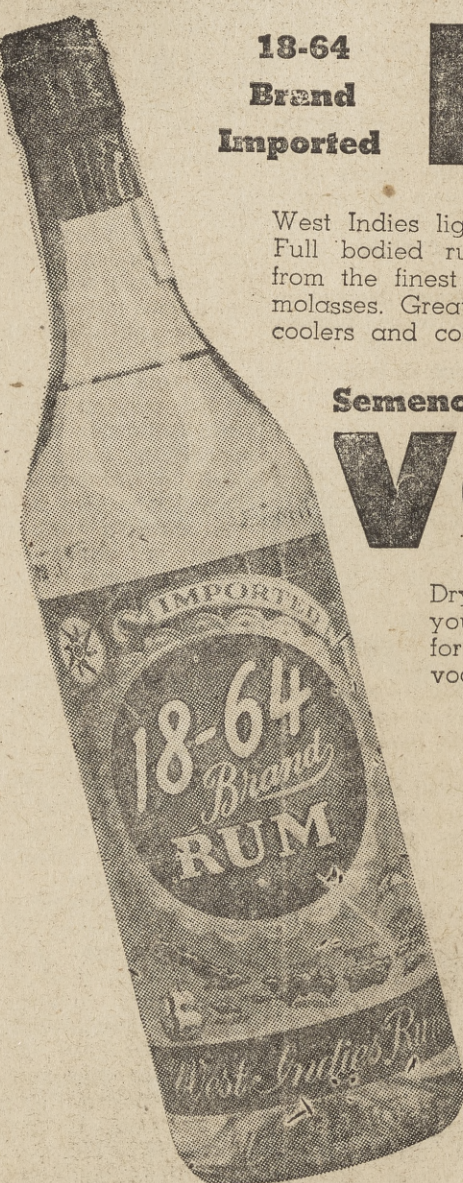

And if such a need arises, our prescription department is prepared to serve you and your family.

A frozen meat thief attempted to burglarize the home of Water Commissioner Harry C. Griffen at 8305 Alton dr., L.G., he told the sheriff's department August 7.

A window screen was cut in a locked basement garage but nothing appeared to be missing. On July 28 an intruder removed $8 worth of meat from the garage which was unlocked at the time. He believes the culprit returned for more meat.

August 31. State property tax: Payment of tax on personal property unsecured by real estate which was due March 1, becomes delinquent this date at 5 p.m.

August 31. Federal highway use tax: Due date of federal vehicle use tax and return for fiscal year July 1, 1961-June 30, 1962, if first use occurred in July 1961 and vehicles have a taxable gross weight in excess of 26,000 pounds.

Finally, it takes an extra person on the payroll just to keep track of the tax totals and to fill out the complicated tax payment forms.

Taxes would be far easier under a completely socialistic form of government. In the latter case the government would take it all and give you back a little.

But think of all the form-filling it would save us!

Who Can Kennedy Trust?

In July, this year, the Department of State held a regional background briefing conference on world affairs for the benefit of news media and community leaders.

The conference being of a background nature, was not expected to deal with specific problems. For that, and the more obvious reason, the Cuban invasion fiasco was glossed over with barely a nod of the state department head.

Two members of State's team said they had read about Cuban invasion preparations in newspapers. They did not say they had no other information. They didn't say they did, either. But the inference was that except for the press reports, the Bay of Pigs invasion details were not available to State.

That is a shocking state of affairs.

This doesn't match up with another report of State and the press. When Jorge Zayas, editor and publisher of the daily Havana Advance spoke to California publishers in San Francisco in February at the group's annual convention, he said that no state department representative had ever contacted him in all the years he had published the influential Cuban daily newspaper.

He said that he knew well the character of Fidel and frequently spoke of this editorially. That it was effective is the fact that one of Castro's early acts following the resolution was confiscation of Zayas' newspaper.

It doesn't seem rational that State would depend on the press on one hand, and ignore it so completely on the other but that is apparently what they did.

Practically every politician who is serious about his office will keep in regular contact with newspapers in his voting area. There are few ways for them to better keep abreast of the grass-roots stirrings. If State had known only relatively as much about Castro as it knew about the invasion they would have known Castro to be a communist.

Actually, none of this adds up. Either there is a well-organized smother up of responsibility for the error in judgment of Castro and later the Cuban "invasion," or else we are in mortal danger of losing our country by those in our government who will not let true information come through.

That the latter is possible was indicated recently when the President's brother, Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy was quoted in a Washington newspaper (the Evening Star) as saying that it would have been disastrous if he (the President) had not learned the lesson of Cuba. The President, Brother Robert added, has learned that he must reassess his opinion of the judgment of experienced advisors. . . (that of getting) advice that might have drawn him into further and more disastrous misadventures in other areas, the story said.

Editors want no part in playing advisors to State but on the Cuban matter the President could have done better if he had read the newspapers instead of taking the bad advice of State and the Central Intelligence Agency.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce has long felt the need for greater community participation in Chamber activities. The Chamber performs a vital function in Lemon Grove's community life. It is dedicated to the task of improving living conditions and promoting the community—thereby making it a better place in which to live and make a living. This is community business, and as such is everybody's business.

Do we want better street lighting in Lemon Grove? Do we feel the need for improved roads and streets? Do we need better coordination of community interest—merchandising and sales stimulus? Do we want people to move to Lemon Grove? How about planning for Lemon Grove's future—industrial expansion—or beautification of the town?

These are examples of community business. The Chamber of Commerce, in speaking for the community, is the instrument to initiate programs to get action.

Many business and professional men and women have already joined the Chamber ranks by taking out regular membership at $36.00 (basic dues). Some have accepted specific responsibilities in committee work. Others, who cannot give of their time for such work, are glad and willing to lend financial support to help the cause. They know that such support helps to strengthen their business or profession.

The door is now open for private citizens not engaged in private business enterprise, to become "Associate Members" in the Chamber of Commerce. Annual dues are only $12. We are inviting every private citizen to join us and make himself a part of our community's important work. We ask the help of all in this BIG job of making Lemon Grove a better place to live and make a living.

To apply for membership, readers may call me at the chamber office at HO 9-9621 and I will be glad to send an application form.

Sincerely,
Edwin R. Koester
Manager, the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce

Dear Editor:

I read your small article last week and it brought to mind an incident that I believe calls for hats-off to Asst. Chief and Mrs. Lawton, (Spring Valley Fire Dept.).

Saturday the Lawtons loaded their camper with the needed equipment, headed for the back country to build watering hole for deer and other animals. If I am correct, they dug out a small hole, where water "used" to be, lined it with plastic and filled it with water.

In my opinion, this is no small chore, especially for people who have such a small amount of time.

I would like to hear from all who would care to donate a bit of time for this purpose. All of us like to head for the hills occasionally. What better way is there to spend spare time than in this manner?

I would like to leave it up to you, Editor. Give this some publicity and see if anyone cares to respond. I am sure that Chief Lawton, (who does not know I am writing you), would be very happy to point out good locations for watering holes, accept assistance in keeping water in them, etc., etc. If anyone would care to contact either you, myself, or Chief Lawton, we should get started immediately. What do you think?

THRIFTMART TO OPEN HERE WITH PRIZES, FUN, LOW PRICES

Thriftmart will open its 62nd supermarket on August 15.

The new unit is located in Spring Valley at 1049 Elkton blvd. at Jamacha. It will be the second market for Thriftmart in the San Diego area. Included in the five-acre shopping center, with parking for 342 cars, is a Cornet Variety Store, Spring Valley Automobile Supply, Olympic Cleaner, Lane's Barber Shop, Foster Freeze, Standard Service and Oscar Beauty Shop. The 26,250 sq. ft. market will contain five complete departments: grocery, meat, produce, delicatessen and liquor, as well as a representative clothing and housewares departments.

The first Thriftmart in San Diego, at 6120 Lake Murray blvd., La Mesa, was opened March 28 of this year. Overwhelming acceptance of this first unit has prompted rapid Thriftmart expansion in San Diego.

Official of Kiwanis Speaks At SV Club's Charter Dinner

C. A. "BUD" MONROE, Governor of the division encompassing California, Nevada and Hawaii, spoke to members of the newly-formed Spring Valley Kiwanis Club at the Charter-presentation dinner on Aug. 5 at the Elks Club at El Cajon City.

He said there are three major projects the club should stress:

1. Make sure candidates running for public office are worthy and qualified.
2. Lend every effort to getting people to the polls on election day.
3. Fight Communism.

More than 160 persons—Kiwanians and guests—attended the dinner which was held to present the charter to the new Spring Valley club. The charter, presented by Gov. Monroe, was accepted by Elmer Lash, newly-elected Spring Valley president. The dinner was sponsored by the El Cajon club, sponsor of the S.V. club.

HISTORY GIVEN

Governor Monroe gave a thumb-nail history of Kiwanis, stating that the club was started 43 years ago in Chicago by a group of businessmen, who used the club for helping each other by trading back and forth. When the membership started dropping off it was decided that something should be done to boost the membership. It was then they decided to help a needy family, which was the turning point of the organization. Now there are 4,900 clubs in the U.S. and Canada, Monroe said, with 260,000 members. The theme of the Kiwanis for 1961 is "Build Responsible Citizenship."

In speaking on the theme, Gov. Monroe pointed out that a good U.S. citizen will go all out to fight Communism. He said there are far too many "fence straddlers" in our nation who do not seem to want any part of either way of life. It is up to Kiwanians, he said, to convince these "fence straddlers" of what is best for Americans.

UNITED FUND HEADS SCHEDULE LUNCHEON

A special luncheon meeting of the Board of Governors of The United Fund of San Diego County will be held at 12:15 p.m., Wednesday, Aug. 16, in the Caribbean Room of El Cortez Hotel.

HISTORY OF SUCCESS

The history of Thriftmart is one of continued success. Roger M. Laverty Sr., president, started the Thriftmart chain 31 years ago in Los Angeles. From a very small beginning, Thriftmart has grown into a two million dollar a year business. Thriftmart stock is listed on the American Stock Exchange, and has paid, without fail, a quarterly dividend to their investors every year. Thriftmart owns and operates its own wholesale warehouse, known as Smart & Final Iris Company, which sells to grocery and supermarkets in California, Nevada and Arizona.

Jerseymaid dairy products are featured in all Thriftmart stores. Jerseymaid is owned and operated by Thriftmart and three other Los Angeles market chains. Other self-owned and operated divisions of Thriftmart are a produce warehouse, which buys and delivers to Thriftmart stores thousands of tons of fresh fruits and vegetables every year, a Delicatessen Kitchen, which supplies Thriftmart stores with the finest imported cheese products from all over the world, as well as hundreds of other delicatessen items which are sold under the Jane Anderson label at Thriftmart stores. Thriftmart also owns and operates their own meat plant, which specializes in Lee's finest quality skinned hams, corned beef and other products under the Lee label.

Ed Claus, superintendent of the San Diego stores, says he is boastfully proud of the acceptance Thriftmart has received in San Diego and that he intends to do everything possible to deserve continued acceptance.

A month-long opening celebration will be held in both stores, beginning August 15. There will be many valuable prizes, entertainment and thousands of specially reduced prices during this grand opening celebration.

Thriftmart cordially invites all shoppers to visit its stores during the grand opening.

La Presa Better Government Lays Cards On Table

The La Presa Colony Better Government Committee has decided how it wants the zoning in its area. A release from the Committee states that it is hoped that the County Planning Commission will recommend the changes to the Board of Supervisors for approval with only minor changes.

The release adds that if favorable action cannot be obtained in this way that maybe an investigation by the Grand Jury will be required to analyze the problems of the community. Also, damage suits might be filed.

The committee recommends that:

Jamacha blvd. zoning be RRB (restricted roadside business).

One block east and west of Jamacha on Grand avenue remain C2.

The balance of Grand avenue be changed to RRB.

Ambulance Calls Occupy Week Of Fire Department

While the Spring Valley Fire Department had no fire calls for the week of August 18, there were six ambulance runs. Ray Buttle, of 3654 Nile st., San Diego, working at the Avondale Elementary School on August 1, fell and was taken to Grossmont hospital suffering from a head injury.

Mrs. Flora Wood, 85, of Henryetta, Okla., here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ruby Olvera, 9016 Memory Lane, suffered a possible heart attack Aug. 2 and was dead on the arrival of the S.V. ambulance. Her body was sent back to Oklahoma for funeral services and burial there.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cole and their youngster were riding in their car on the morning of Aug. 3. In the 8800 block of Innsdale st., South Spring Valley, Mr. Cole's attention became distracted from his driving and he ran into a parked car. The family was taken to Grossmont hospital where it was found Mrs. Cole had a slight concussion and Mr. Cole several cuts. He was released soon but she remained in the hospital for several hours. The Coles live at 732 Worthington St., S.V.

Martha Jamie, 56, of 8960 Idica st., was taken to County hospital Aug. 3 suffering from a possible attack of appendicitis.

BABY BURNED

Johnnie Clemons, 14-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clemons of Lyons Valley road, Lyons Valley, was brought into S.V. fire station 2 Aug. 7, suffering from second degree burns. He was taken to Grossmont hospital for treatment. Mrs. Clemons said the boy received the burns from turkey grease, which was on a counter near the stove. She said she was ready to make gravy for the evening meal when the youngster reached up and pulled the grease down. He was burned on his ribs, one arm and shoulder.

The final ambulance run was on Aug. 9, when Mrs. Sophia Scharfer, 77, of 9118 Olive Dr., was taken to Grossmont hospital for examination after she became ill.

CAL TAXPAYERS TO HAVE IT EASIER

As a result of the changes passed by the legislature and signed into law by Governor Edmund G. Brown, Cranston said, California taxpayers should find it easier to complete their income tax returns next year, and some will find their tax burden reduced, according to State Controller Alan Cranston.

Sometimes people write me that the leaves of their dahlias curl up, although they can see no indication of any pest.

This condition can, of course, be caused by the regular curly leaf, which is a fungus disease. But more frequently it is due to the leaf having been punctured by hoppers or flea beetles. The depredation of these two insects breaks down the chlorophyll of the leaves and by doing so, causes the leaves to curl.

In either case, the remedy would be to spray the dahlias with a light oil emulsion, preferably one containing nicotine. This is a mild spray which leaves no unsightly residue and does no harm to your plants or blooms. Only affords them protection. Such a spray is ideal for dahlias during the fall months. In fact, it is an ideal fall cleanup spray for camellias or any other plants or shrubs.

Around Our Valley:

News and Views from Spring Valley
By Tommy Thomas

Water Shortage, Vandalism Affect Public Parks

Summertime means camping time. There are many things to know about camping areas of the state and county if you are planning an outing.

A couple of things which are of interest to many of our good friends and neighbors of Spring Valley have been released by the California Beaches and Parks Department. One is that Sweetwater River which usually runs through the Cuyamaca Rancho State Park is now dry and that no water is going over Green Valley Falls. (Green Valley is one of the favorite spots for Scouts and other organizations.)

The department also says that steps are being taken to curtail increasing vandalism in many of our parks. There will be daytime closing of many parts of these parks, the department said. Previously allowed to remain open 24 hours a day, the areas will now be allowed to open only from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. These parks are mostly in the northern part of the state, but Torrey Pines Park has been named as one of those to close at night.

It's really too bad these things happen. It seems many persons do not appreciate the beauties of our great and beautiful state.

Traveling Duteltes Find Pretty Grass, Strict Litter Laws

Something else many of us seem not to appreciate are our fine freeways and highways, for regardless of the laws, there are many roads still littered with beer cans, bottles, papers, cardboard boxes and many other things.

This is all leading up to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. (Wayne and Maye) Dutelle of 9288 Campo rd. recently returned home from a trip (July 7-30) which took them into Canada, Maine and south along the Eastern seaboard and home again.

Maye remarked that Canada and many of the eastern states enforce the litter law. She said that in many areas along the highways are vast areas of green grass growing near the roads and that the state or province keeps the grass cut. In many places the fine for litter is heavy and jail terms are often given offenders.

The highlight of the Dutelle trip was a two-week stay in Jackman, Maine, where they visited Wayne's father, 83-year old Ed Dutelle. He is still active, making canoes, paddles and snowshoes which he sells to residents and tourists. He came to Maine with his parents about 70 years ago and was a guide for fishermen and hunters for 50 years.

DRIVERS ZOONOM BY

Maye Dutelle said she was surprised at the speedy but careful drivers of Canada. She said there are many small cars there which ZOOM right by you. But, she pointed out, it was reported the traffic accident rate is very low. Maybe we can learn a few things about good driving from Canadians, Maye said.

Hass Family Goes To Historical East; Tours United Nations

Mr. and Mrs. (Alvin and Mary) Hass and two daughters of 9141 Rosedale, also returned home recently from a month's vacation, the highlight being a reunion with Al's five other brothers at Washington, D.C. The brothers get together every 10 years. The last reunion was in Manning, Iowa. Five other brothers are John of Hyattsville, Md.; Herb, Manning, Iowa; Walt, Dennison, Ia.; Carl of Kentucky; and Glen of Seattle, Wash.

Leaving Washington, the Hass family went north via the New York thoroughway to Maine. They said the weather was fine and they were intrigued with greenery in many states. In New York they went through the U.N. building with its girl guides from many countries.

The Hass family visited several historic sites but found many overcrowded. Everywhere you go, Mrs. Hass commented, you have to pay to see interesting places. They were disappointed in New Orleans, Mrs. Hass said, for gone away are the French of that famous city. The city isn't what it used to be.

In Bennington, Vt., the Hass family saw the original American flag (before Betsy Ross) and the place where the Green Mountain Boys helped to turn the tide in the Revolutionary War. Truly, Mrs. Hass said, the East Coast has a tremendous amount of history.

It is the Pattersons' first visit to Our Valley and they said they like it. Mr. Patterson owns a frozen food locker in Carthage. The Pattersons were to go to Los Angeles to visit another sister, Mrs. Grady Campbell. Incidently, Mr. Patterson is an uncle of Mrs. Melba Danner of 9050 Lemory ln.

CHESTER GETS HOME FOR WEDDING OF SIS

It was nice having Chester Harshman home for his sister's wedding recently. When I say "Chester Harshman," I'm speaking of Lance Cpl. Chester Harshman, of the U.S. Marines, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Harshman of 9240 Vista Dr., S.V. Chester, graduate of El Cajon High School, class of 1956, had two years at San Luis Obispo Polytechnic before going into the service. He has seen duty in Okinawa, and has been home on a 30-day leave.

Only one wedding anniversary reported for the week (Aug. 6), and that is Mr. and Mrs. (George and Shirley) Tweed of 3677 Birdie dr., Brookside. It's their 16th wedding anniversary. They were married in Tampa, Fla. They've been here nine years.

L.G. Chambermen Sing 'Happy Birthday' To Scott

CONGRATULATIONS — When College Grove merchantman George Scott marked his first year in the Greater Lemon Grove area, a host of friends and business associates participated in a breakfast last week to pay tribute to him.

City and county officials, chamber of commerce, civic leaders, newsmen, and Starlight Opera folk were all on hand for the festivities. Few of these had not known Scott's generosity, charity or charm.

In the photo are Mervin Blum, general mana-

Scott is a director of the L.G. chamber. Last year he contributed several thousand dollars to the L.G. chamber by way of a directional electric sign at the west end of the community and by absorbing for several months chamber operating deficits.

'Artificial' Leaves Look Real At Wooden Nickel

The owner of the Wooden Nickel, which is undergoing remodeling for its grand opening in a few weeks, recently placed a tree stump with branches inside the place for realistic effect.

Then he carefully placed artificial leaves on the branches, making them look as authentic as possible.

Anyone coming into the Wooden Nickel, which is located near Mason's Feed and Garden Supply Store on Broadway, could hardly tell the tree from a real, actual growing tree.

Then one day someone thought he noticed a very real artificial leaf. Others agreed that it was a very real looking leaf. Then people started noticing more and more very real looking leaves.

"This tree is growing!" someone finally shouted. And if it keeps growing there will be fewer and fewer very real looking artificial leaves and more and more very real looking real leaves.

'Night Wiring' Brings Charge Of Night Prowling

Mrs. Dymple H. Grime, 7175 Pearson st., Vista La Mesa, executed a citizen's arrest upon Jack Vernard Dodds of Chula Vista during the early morning hours of July 29 in the patio of her home.

Sheriff's deputies, responding to her call, found the suspect sleeping alongside the pool in the patio but he became belligerent when officers awakened him.

Mrs. Grimes said the man had caused trouble before. Dodds said he stopped by to fix the electric wiring by the pool. Mrs. Grime's daughter, Mrs. Margo Axtel, witnessed the intrusion.

At county jail, Dodds was charged with night prowling.

Students Prefer Mission Gorge

A site on the canyon rim overlooking Mission Gorge rd., north of Fletcher Hills, will be the permanent home of the new Grossmont College, if a group of prospective college students have their say. This was the site of first preference as presented by Lenita Maljan and Judy Hillius, chairmen, in reporting the opinion of the Grossmont College Student Site Selection Committee to the board of trustees.

A committee of 10 students, representing all areas of the district, toured possible future campus sites currently under consideration and recommended the Monte Vista Ranch and Santee area sites as the second and third choices, respectively. Advantages of the Fletcher Hills site as indicated in the student report included:

1. The accessibility to transportation.
 2. The climate and scenic location.
 3. The opportunity to develop a football stadium and an outdoor Greek theatre in natural canyons.
- The board received the report and commended the student committee for its interest. The student committee indicated a willingness to assist the board in seeking community support for a building bond issue in order to make early construction of a permanent college possible.

SDSC Enrollment Starts; 12,000 Expected For Fall

Registration for the fall semester at San Diego City College has started. Returning students started to sign up for classes this morning in what is expected to be one of the largest enrollments in the history of the college.

More than 12,000 students, both day and extended day, are expected to be registered by the first few weeks of the new semester.

Mrs. Margaret D. Olson, dean of students, indicated that the number of returning students who were pre-programmed in the spring is far in excess of the number pre-programmed last year. Pre-programming, Mrs. Olson said, facilitates the student's registration since much of the planning and counseling can be accomplished prior to the rush during August.

New students will begin to register Fri., Aug. 11. Hours for registration for day students are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and for evening students from 3 to 8 p.m.

All students are to register at the main campus of the college, 1425 Russ blvd. Facilities at the registration center will be open five days a week until the close of registration, Friday, Sept. 8. Mrs. Olson added.

The team was eliminated from the All-Star Tournament on July 20 when a strong Lakeside All-Star team defeated them 11-1. But Cajon De Oro got one of the two home-runs hit in the game. It was by Womack. Lakeside was eliminated when it went against the stronger American Nationals of El Cajon.

250,000 Expected To See Air Show

More than 250,000 visitors are expected to attend a gigantic air show for the public at North Island Naval Air Station here, Aug. 19-20.

Staged as the West Coast's biggest celebration of the Navy's 50th anniversary of Naval Aviation, the show's program will cut across half a century, from low level flights by a replica of the Navy's first plane to precision aerobatics by the "Blue Angels."

Harry Simpson would appear to be out in front in the race for the Murray Goodrich award, which goes to the Padre player selected as the most valuable for the season. He hit his 20th home lately and also took over the batting lead at .311.

CIVIL DEFENSE: A Series

What To Do When The Signals Sound

(In line with the national drive for preparedness against attack, this newspaper herewith begins a series on Civil Defense as a service to its readers. The series is based on special booklets prepared by the U.S. Government. Each week a different aspect of preparedness will be printed and it is recommended that readers clip them for future reference.)

(This newspaper would be interested in hearing what local people are doing on their own to prepare against a possible nuclear attack.)

Every person, whether he lives in a possible target or a nontarget area, should be trained to act instantly when a warning signal sounds. This applies especially to the family at home. Every person should know the official instructions for taking action on the receipt of warning.

TIME LIMITED
The members of your family may have only a limited time to take protective measures if an attack should come. That is why it is important to plan what to do ahead of time, and to practice doing it. Whether you are told to evacuate your city or to take shelter in your home, your chances of survival will be better if your family knows what to do and is trained to act as a unit.

Warning signals are of two kinds — ALERT and TAKE COVER. The ALERT SIGNAL, a steady blast of 3 to 5 minutes' duration, means that attack is probable—prepare to act according to the operations plans of your community. Turn your radio to the CONELRAD frequency (640 or 1240 on the dial) and listen for official instructions and information. Follow the instructions promptly.

The TAKE COVER SIGNAL, a wailing tone or a series of short blasts of 3 minutes' duration, means that attack is imminent and you must take the best available shelter immediately, regardless of whether you are in a target or nontarget area.

PROCEDURE

Let us suppose that your family is at home when you hear either the ALERT or TAKE COVER signal. The following things should be done. Decide now who is to do them, so that each can practice his part of the job in advance.

WHEN YOU HEAR THE ALERT SIGNAL

1. Make one member of the family responsible for giving orders—for rounding up the other members of the family and getting them started on their emergency tasks without delay.

2. Turn on your radio. Tune it to 640 or 1240 kc. These dial settings are your channel for official information and instructions. If you are not sure what the signal means, this is the surest way of finding out. Do not use your telephone.

your utility company for emergency instructions regarding utilities.

TURN THINGS OFF

4. Turn off or disconnect all heating appliances, including toasters, irons, gas stoves, or hotplates which might cause fires if upset. Close all doors on your coalburning furnace or wood-burning stove if in use, shut off feed line valve from oil tank. Turn off the blower motor of oil burner, smother open fire in fireplace with sand, and close chimney damper.

5. If your community plan calls for evacuation and you are given official instructions, follow them quickly but calmly. If you have taken part in neighborhood or citywide evacuation drills, you will be better prepared to carry out these instructions.

Although evacuation instructions will vary with different localities, most will probably include points 6 through 9 below.

EMERGENCY KIT

6. Get your emergency evacuation kit. This should include food and water, a first aid kit, blankets, extra clothing, flashlight, necessary medicines, money, and a battery radio if possible. You should have it packed ready to go, but if you haven't, collect these items as quickly as possible.

7. Close windows and doors and draw curtains or blinds.

8. Go by car or on foot, according to instructions, along the evacuation route assigned to you. While en route you should obey official instructions. If you have a car or battery radio, keep it tuned to your CONELRAD frequency.

9. If your family includes small children or handicapped persons, assign their care to older or able members.

Spring Valley Man In Exercise 'Tail Wind'

COAST OF CALIFORNIA (SPCL)—Participating in Exercise "Tail Wind" involving aircraft and 21 Navy ships off the Coast of California while serving aboard the guided missile frigate USS Coontz was Lawrence W. Thomas, hospital corpsman, second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph P. Thomas of 1503 Tareyton, Spring Valley.

The five-day exercise featured an attack aircraft carrier, four cruisers, destroyers and replenishment ships in a fast carrier striking force maneuver opposing shore-based patrol planes, medium jet bombers and submarines.

Included in the exercise was a full scale replenishment of the task force at sea by fleet oilers, ammunition and store ships.
